THE BOOK'S DISTINCTIVE TRAIT:

WHERE IS GOD?

— WHY? —

SECULARIZED CULTURE?

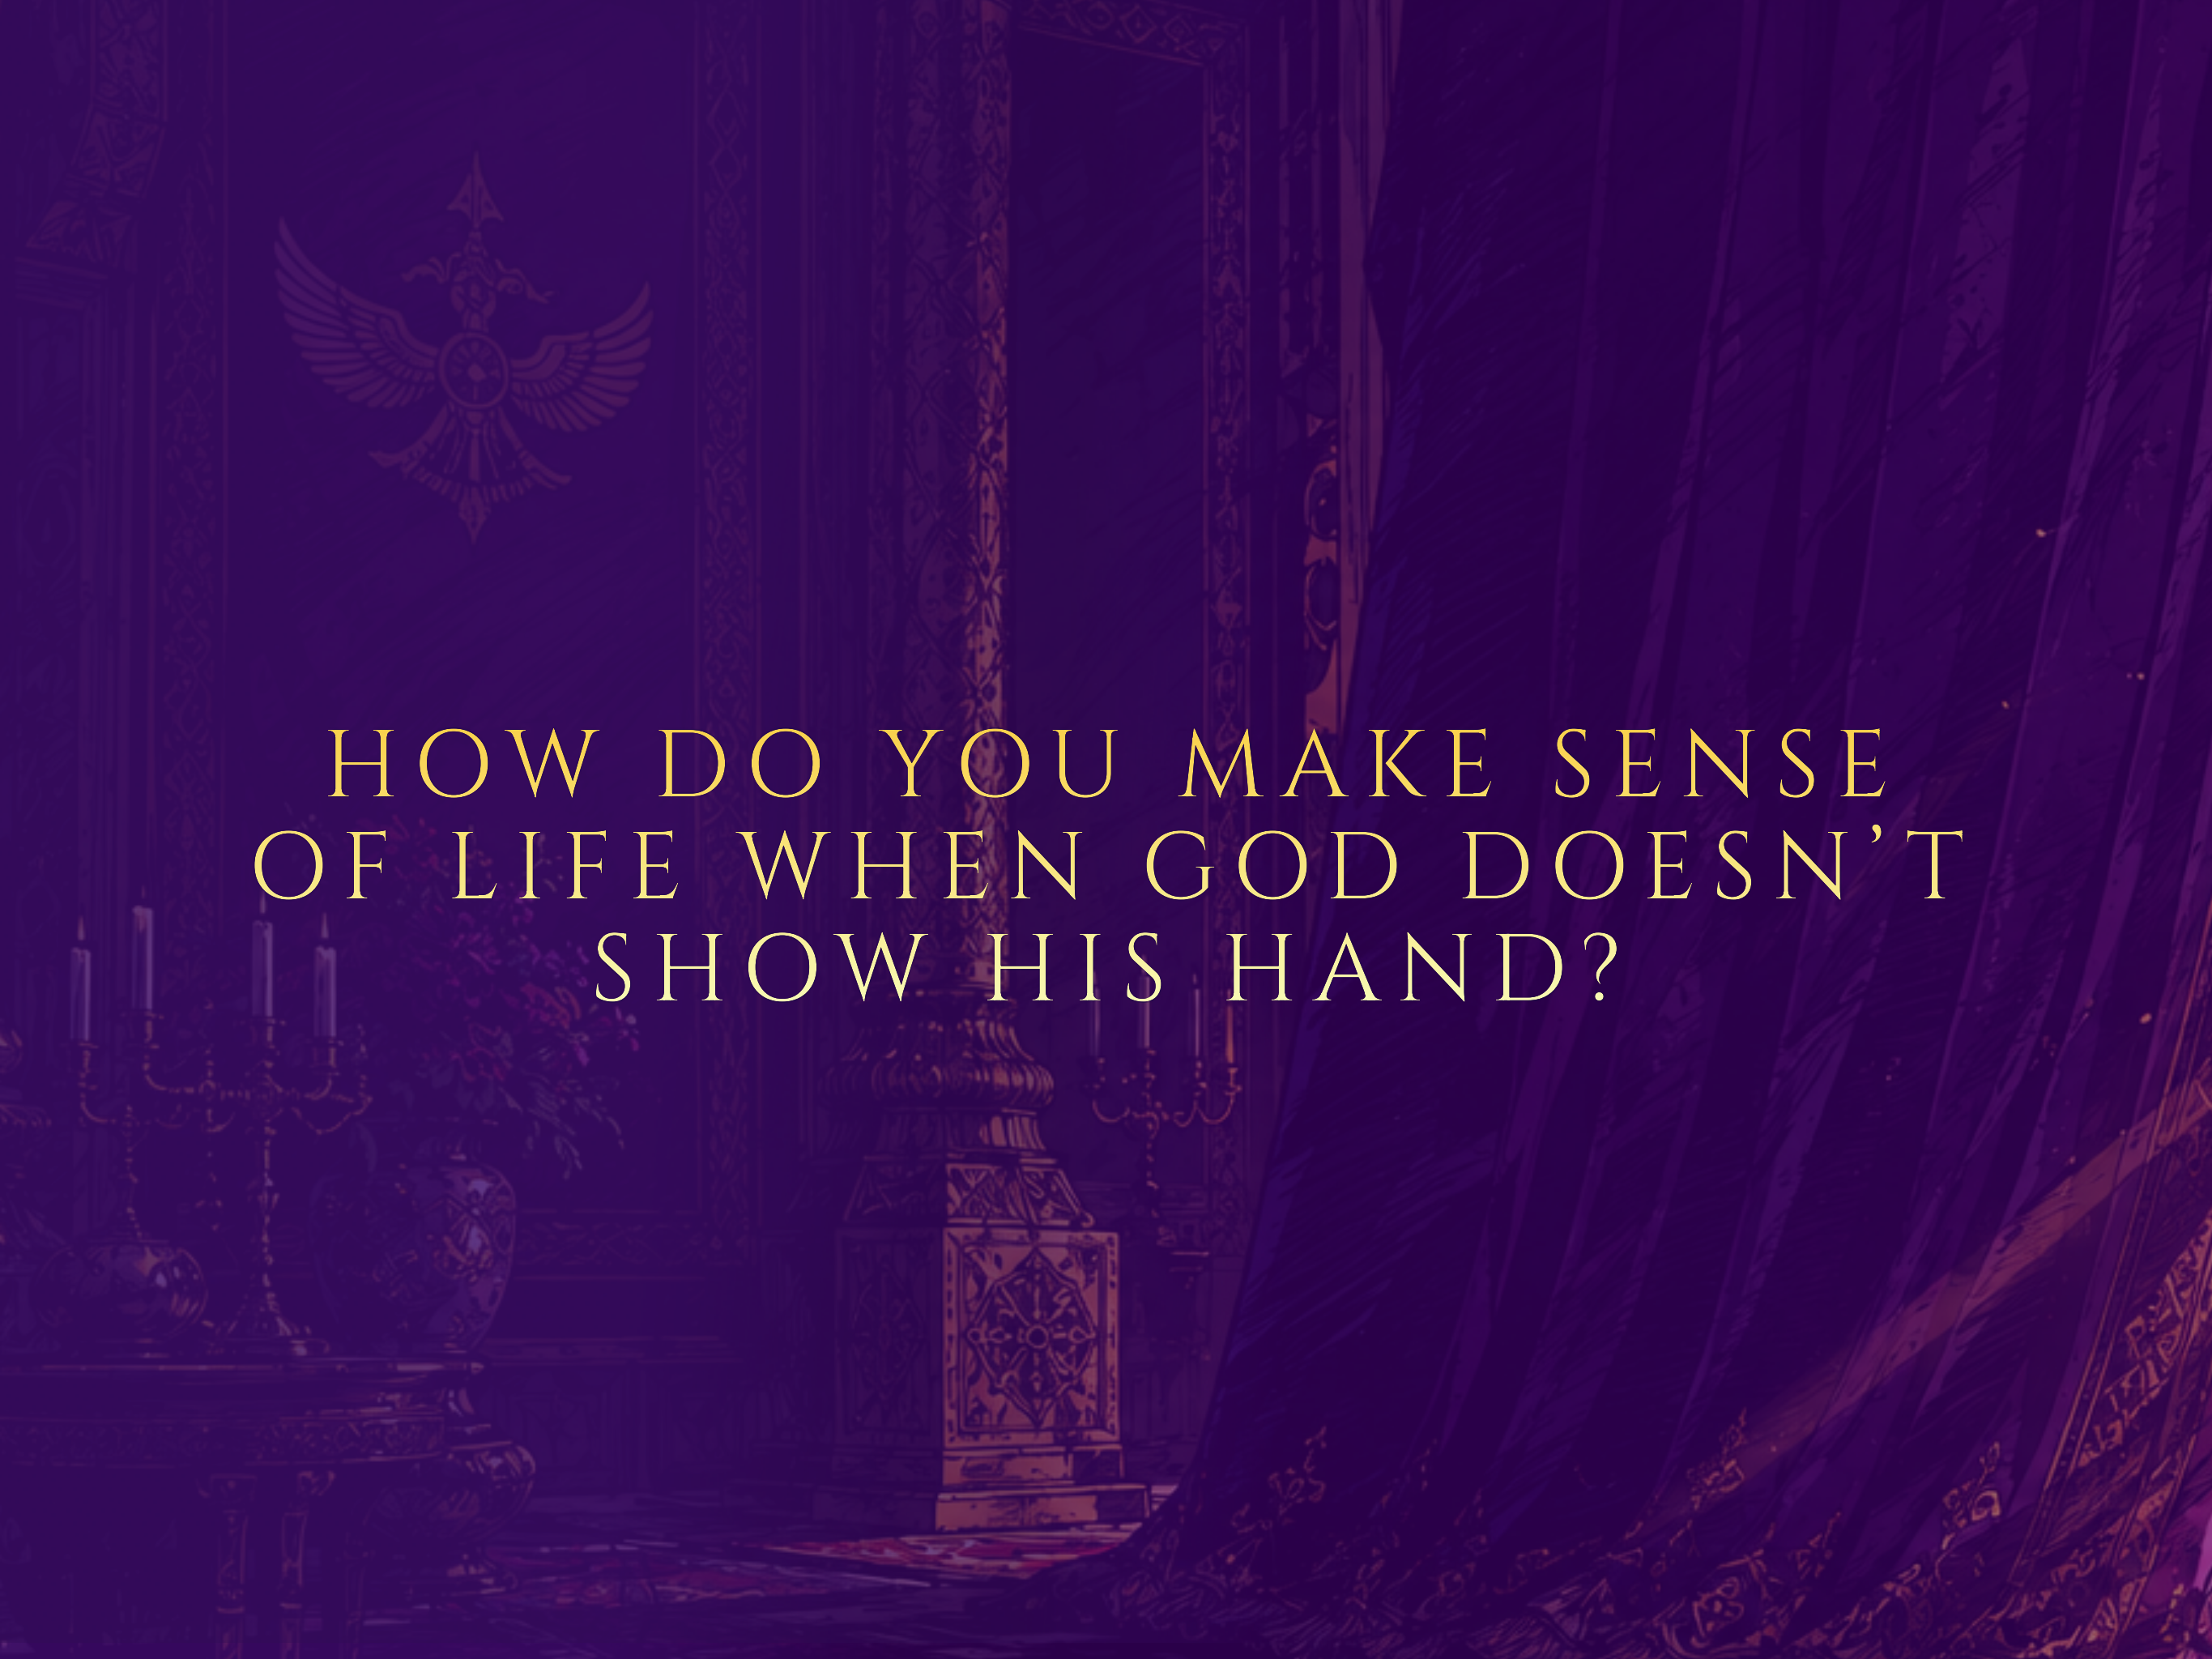

NO DIVINE MESSAGE?

UNBELIEVING AUTHOR?

HISTORY WITHOUT GOD?

OBVIOUS OR UNSEEN

WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

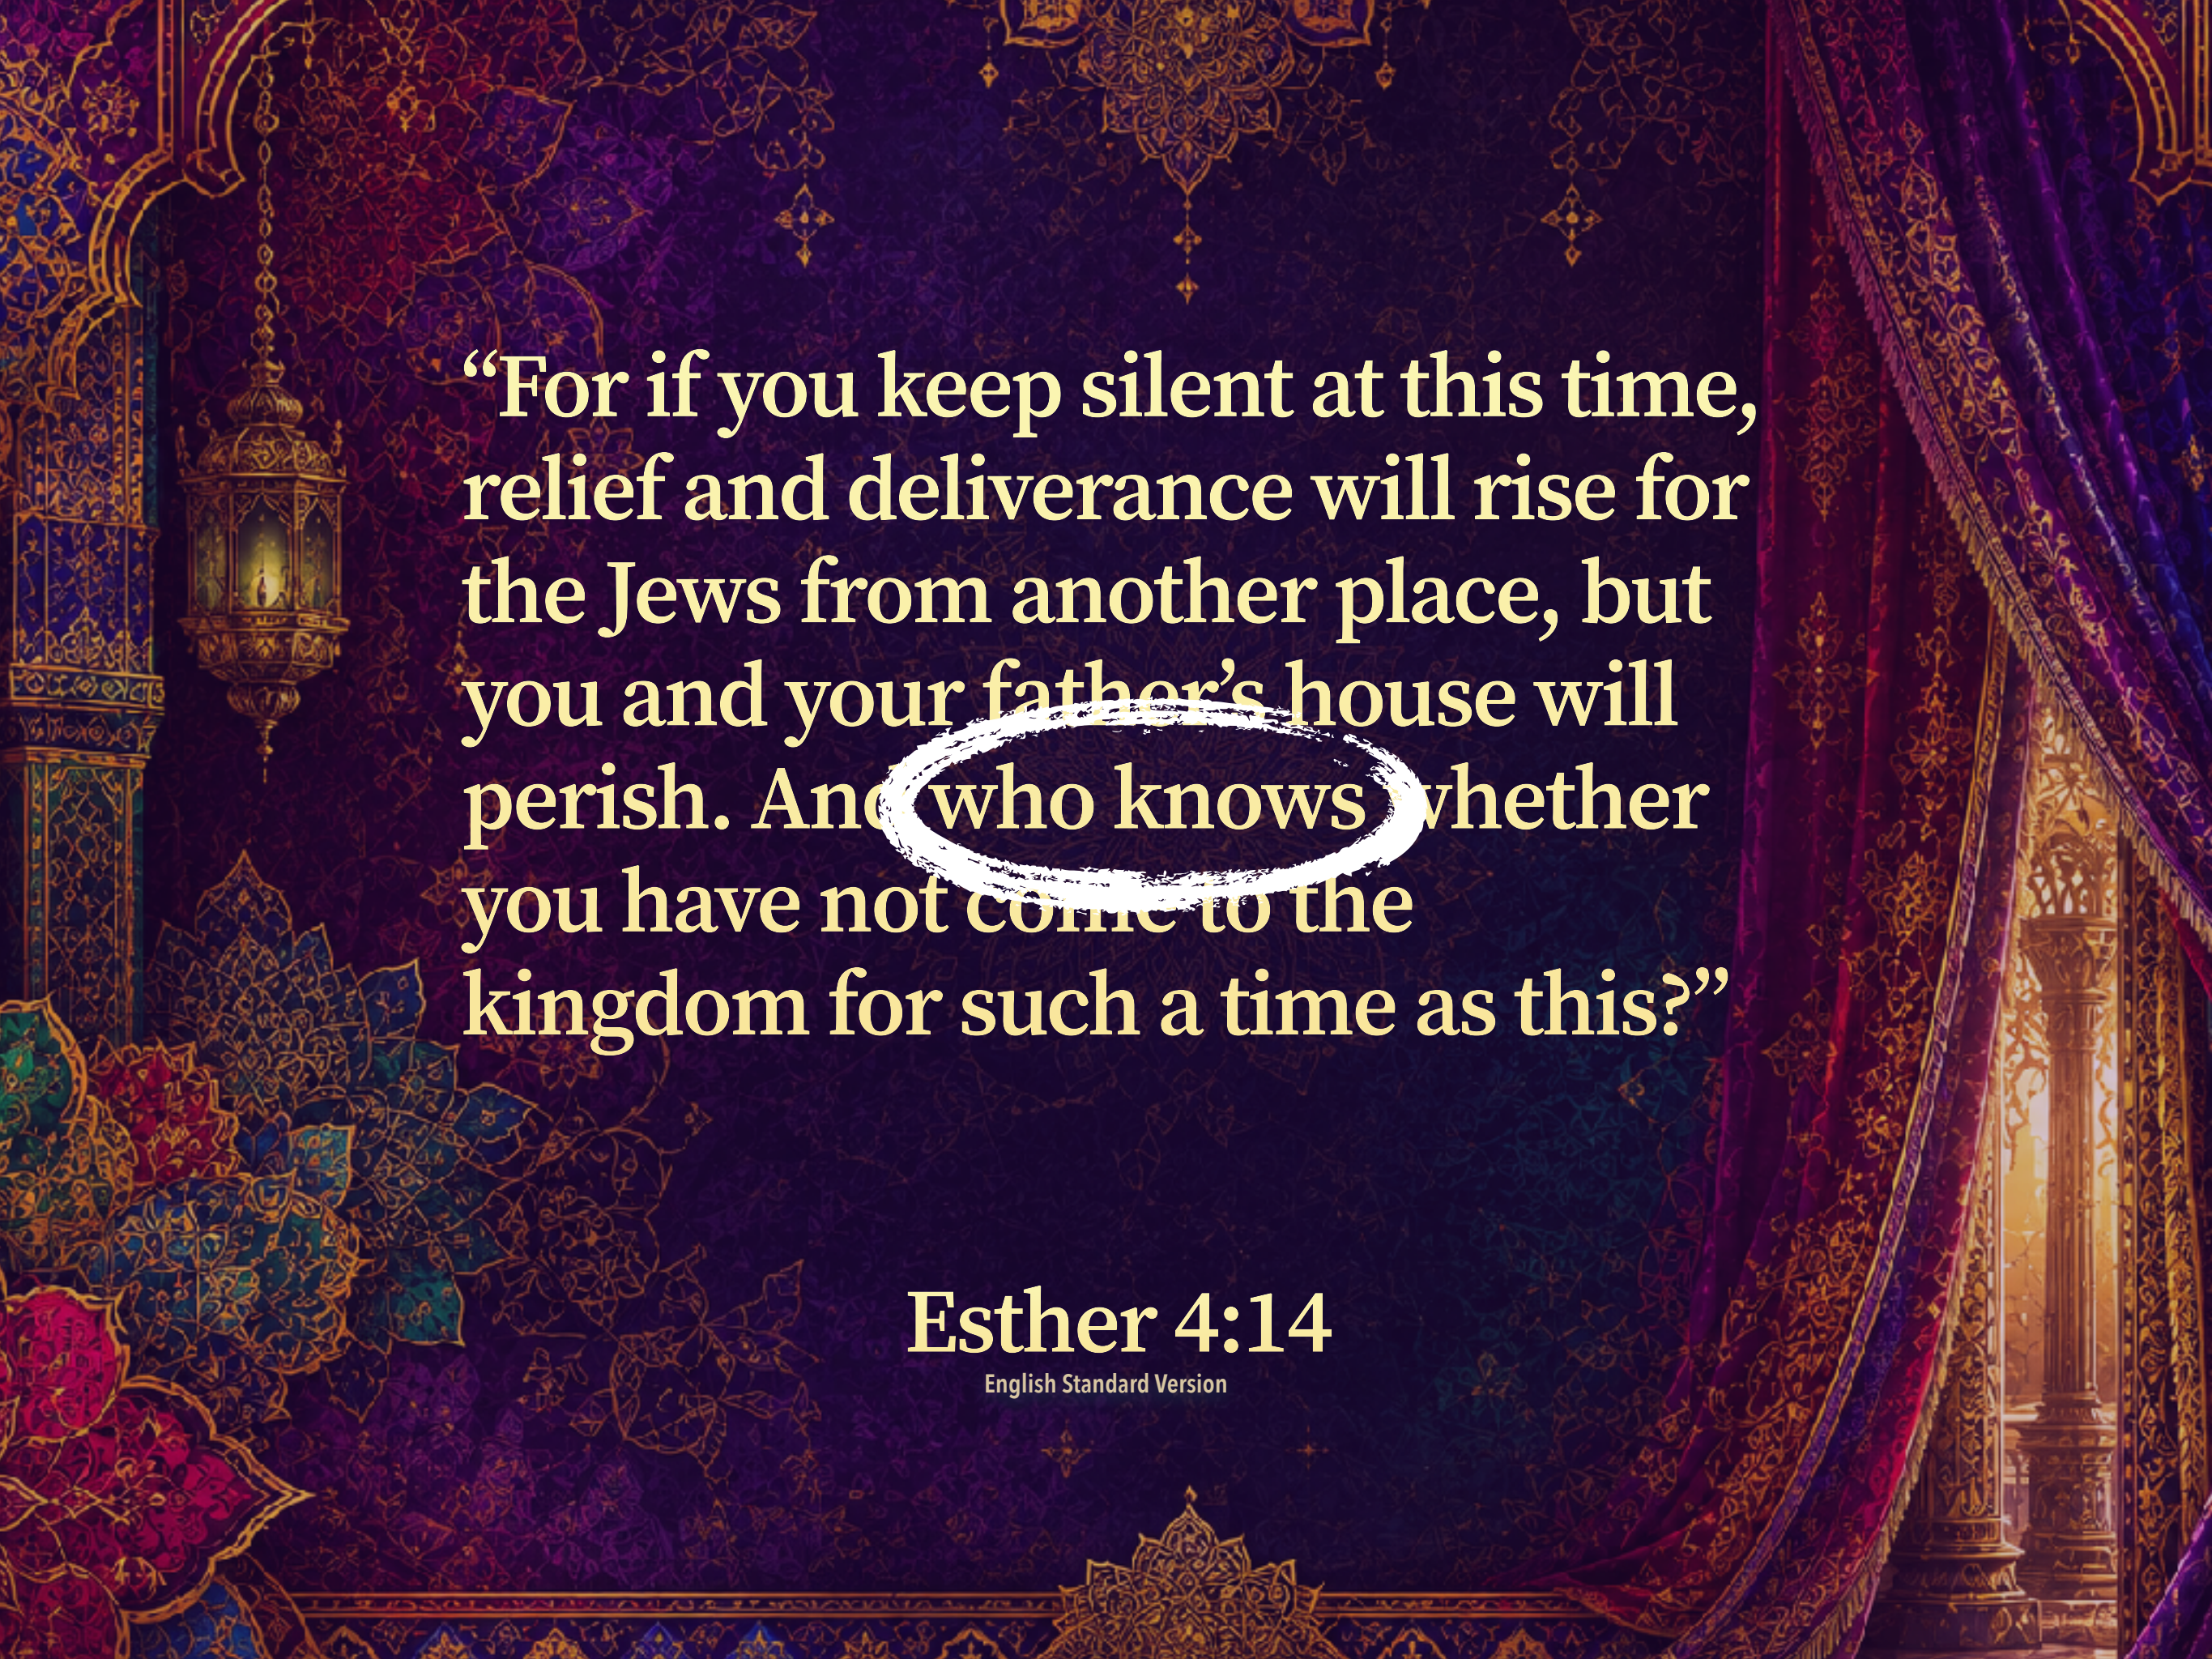

The background is a rich, dark blue or purple fabric with intricate gold-colored floral and geometric patterns. On the left, a traditional Islamic hanging lantern (fanoos) is visible. On the right, heavy, patterned curtains in shades of purple and gold are drawn back, revealing a glimpse of a golden column and a bright light source, possibly a window or a doorway. The overall atmosphere is one of elegance and historical richness.

“For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?”

Esther 4:14
